POLICE CRIME REPORT

DURING WAR, BE MINDFUL OF CHARITY SCAMS

The ongoing war and refugee crisis in eastern Europe presents a prime opportunity for fraudsters to pose as a charity and obtain your money on false pretenses.

If you're contacted for funds concerning humanitarian relief on email, text, or phone:

- Ask for detailed information about the charity, including address and phone number.
- Look up the charity through their website or a trusted third-party source to confirm that the charity is real. Guidestar.org is a good, free resource to obtain information about nonprofits.
- Follow your gut – your instincts are more accurate than you may think. If you don't feel comfortable and if a donation doesn't feel right, don't contribute.

If you've become aware of a fraud or a scam, you can submit a complaint online with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC): <https://reportfraud.ftc.gov>

If you have a crime or concern to report, you can call the Rockville City Police Department at:

Non-Emergency: 240-314-8900

Emergency: 9-1-1

We provide a weekly report of serious crime to serve as an overview of police activity occurring within City Limits. Please note this summary does not include every reported incident that has occurred during this time frame and that the words "arrested" and "charged" do not imply guilt.
