

“King Farm Residents should have all seasonal and/or holiday decorations displayed no earlier than 30 days prior to the holiday/season...and put away no later than 21 days past the holiday/season.”

- KFCFA, Administrative Resolution No. 1- Visual Changes to Living Units & Lots

Winter Begins around December 21 of each year.

Begin Displaying Winter Decorations around December 1 of each year.

Winter Holiday Decorations can be displayed until January 21 of each new year. (This includes various holiday and New Year decorations)

Winter Seasonal Decorations may be displayed until February 28 of each year.

Spring Begins around March 21 of each year.

Begin displaying Spring Decorations around March 1 of each year.

Spring Holiday decorations can be displayed until May 15 of each year.
(This includes various holidays between March and May.)

Spring Seasonal Decorations can be displayed until May 31 of each year.

Summer Begins around June 21 of each year.

Begin displaying Summer Decorations around June 1 of each year.

Summer Holiday decorations can be displayed until August 15 of each year.
(This includes various holidays between June and August.)

Summer Seasonal Decorations can be displayed until August 31 of each year.

Autumn Begins around September 21 of each year.

Begin displaying Autumn Decorations around September 1 of each year.

Autumn Holiday Decorations can be displayed until November 30 of each year.
(This includes various holidays from September through November)

Autumn Seasonal Decorations can be displayed until November 30 of each year.

